

Comal County

Amendment to Plat Procedure

When a property owner owns two or more contiguous platted lots and wishes to combine said lots into a single lot, the owner may either replat the property or follow the Amendment to Plat procedure.

Important: Generally, the combination of lots by Amendment to Plat is irreversible. Please consider that any further reconfiguration or division of the resulting lot would require the preparation of a subdivision plat in full compliance with the Comal County Subdivision Rules and Regulations.

Conditions

1. Comal County reserves the right to require a replat if the County determines that a replat would be most appropriate.
2. The property shall be lots or tracts that have been created by the filing and recording of a plat that is currently on record with the Comal County Clerk in the Map and Plat Records.
3. The lots or tracts shall exist in their current platted configuration as shown on a recorded plat on file with the Comal County Clerk. Lots or tracts that have been subdivided, reconfigured, amended, corrected, or otherwise modified without being approved by the Comal County Commissioners Court and filed for record with the County Clerk shall not be eligible for the Amendment to Plat procedure.
4. The Amendment to plat is only intended to combine the lots or tracts. The Amendment to Plat shall not affect the dimensions of the overall boundary, building setbacks, easements, notes, restrictions, or any other provisions shown on the recorded plat.
5. All required documents listed on Subdivision Plat Application Form C shall be submitted. Comal County shall not process the Amendment to Plat until all required documents have been received by the County Engineer.

Review and Approval

1. The County Engineer shall receive the required documents and recording fee and review the submission for completeness.
2. The proposed Amendment to Plat shall be sent to the appropriate county commissioner for placement on Commissioners Court's agenda to be considered for approval.
3. Upon approval by Commissioners Court, the County Clerk shall accept the fee and record the Amendment to Plat in the Real Property Records and reference it in the Map and Plat Index.

Instructions & Answers to Frequently Asked Questions

The following numbered paragraphs correspond with the numbered list of requirements on Application Form C.

1. Subdivision Plat Application Form C – Gather the documents listed on Form C and submit the package to the County Engineer's Office, either by mail or in person.
2. Address Request Form – For assistance, contact the Address Coordinator (see the contact information at the bottom of the Address Request Form).
3. Amendment to Plat Form

Fill in the OWNER name(s) as written on the recorded deed(s). Owner name(s) must match on each deed; if they do not, in most cases the Amendment to Plat application cannot be accepted. You may choose to contact an attorney to revise the deed(s). If an owner's name has changed due to marriage, deed revision may not be necessary. Please provide a copy of the recorded marriage certificate.

Under LEGAL DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTIES, enter the County recording number of the plat being amended (this will be a Plat Document # or a Vol. & Page). Enter the SUBDIVISION TITLE as shown on the recorded plat with the UNIT number (if any). Enter the LOT numbers being combined and the BLOCK (if any). Example: Subdivision: XYZ Subdivision, Unit 1, Lots 1 & 2. The subdivision will not always have UNIT or BLOCK numbers.

Under ESTABLISHING, write the resulting LOT number, which will be the lowest lot number with an R following the number. Example: Lot 1R would be the resulting lot number if combining Lots 1 and 2. Enter the BLOCK (if any), SUBDIVISION title, and UNIT (if any).

All owners must sign the Amendment to Plat Form with a Notary Public present. Submit the ORIGINAL form (not a copy).

4. Recorded Deeds (showing ownership and property description) are available for a small fee from the County Clerk's office, 150 N. Seguin Ave., New Braunfels (830-221-1230). Also, if any mortgage or lien exists for ANY PART of the property, please submit the corresponding recorded document that describes the terms of the lien (e.g., Deed of Trust, Warranty Deed with Vendor's Lien, Home Equity loan document, etc.).
5. Lienholder Acknowledgement is required if there is a mortgage or lien on ANY PART of the property. The lender, not the property owner, must complete the form. Submit the ORIGINAL form, signed by the lender and notarized, with your application. A copy is not acceptable.
6. Tax Certificates (not receipts or statements) must be issued and signed by the Comal County Tax Office, and must show current property taxes paid in full. Please submit the ORIGINAL certificates (not copies).
Please note: Additional documentation of property tax payment may be required after September 1 of any given year, per Texas Property Code § 12.002(e). If it becomes necessary to submit tax payment documentation in addition to the tax certificates, we will notify you.
7. Submit a Check or Money Order, payable to the Comal County Clerk, for the plat recording fee, $121.00 plus an additional $4.00 for each tax certificate page. Please write your driver's license and telephone numbers on your check.
8. Property Owner's Statement regarding Subdivision Covenants and Restrictions – Check and complete the applicable statement on the form. If you check statement #1, attach correspondence from your POA/HOA affirming that the proposed Amendment to Plat does not attempt to remove the subdivision's covenants or restrictions.

Please be aware that the Amendment to Plat procedure does not release utility or other easements. If desired, you may contact the utility companies to request utility easement releases. Easement releases are not required for the Amendment to Plat.

Approval and Recording

After all the required documents have been correctly submitted to the County Engineer's Office, approval by Commissioners Court usually takes about two weeks. The County Clerk then records the Amendment to Plat and mails the recorded document to the owner's address. The Amendment to Plat process is then complete.
